A Contemplative Practice of Gratitude

Call to Worship—sections of Psalm 95:1-7 (the Message)

¹⁻² Come, let's shout praises to GOD,
raise the roof for the Rock who saved us!

Let's march into his presence singing praises,
lifting the rafters with our hymns!

³⁻⁵ And why?

Because GOD is the best, High King over all the gods.

In one hand he holds deep caves and caverns,

in the other hand grasps the high mountains.

He made Ocean—he owns it!

His hands sculpted Earth!

⁶⁻⁷ So come, let us worship: bow before him,

on your knees before GOD, who made us!

Oh yes, he's our God,

and we're the people he pastures, the flock he feeds.

Prayer of Illumination

Lord, Giver of the Words of life, breathe into these ancient words anew so that they may become a living Word for us today. Free us from burdens and distractions we brought with us, so that we might hear this Word afresh.

Amen.

Prayer of Confession

Lord, Giver of Life, You gave each of us our lives and everything freely to us as a gift, because that is Your nature. You entrusted these gifts to us to be good stewards, yet we confess that we have joined in systems that are unjust, exploit the poor and degrade the creation. We confess we have not been responsible with our resources nor have we lived with gratitude. Forgive us, Lord. May the forgiveness and healing we receive from You this day free us and empower us to live generously in gratitude. Amen.

Words of Forgiveness

God is not only generous in offering us the gifts of life but also forgiveness and a new start in Jesus Christ.

Thanks be to God, who shares grace generously with us, and unchains us from the past, secures our future, and gives us the present as a gift. Amen.

† Peace of Christ

At this time, you may stand and greet your neighbor offering signs of peace.
