Call to Worship—by Thom Shuman

Rosemary Marlowe

God has called us to this place.

What do you see?

We see people who model for us

God's joyous embrace of all people.

God has brought us to this place.

What do you hear?

We hear God's hope that we are able to see each person as our sister or brother.

God has challenged us to open our lives and hearts to others.

What will you do?

We will do only one thing:

welcome everyone in God's name!

Prayer of Confession—adapted from Thom Shuman

Rosemary Marlowe

In the mirror we call scripture, Revealing God, we see ourselves for who we are and are not. We whine about those who are not doing what we think they should, and ignore our failings. We have spoken words which nibble away at the life in our family and friends. We have stepped over the poor on our way to get more and more, ignoring their needs.

Forgive us, Lord of Love. Sit us down at the feet of Jesus that we turn from our sins, may learn from Him, and become more like Him, even as we have been welcomed into your heart through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

Words of Forgiveness

Friends, hear this good news: when we turned away from the love and care we have been called to, God did not throw us out of His House, but God entered into the world in Jesus, was died and raised, for God so loved the world, and so people could always have a way to remain in God's house. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

People (to leader): In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Glory to God! Amen.
