Chiming the Trinity

† Call to Worship—by Dr. Lisa Hancock, UMC Discipleship Ministries Autumn Boyer

Like the disciple Matthew, God calls us from where we are to trust in God as we journey with God into the unknown.

Whether we are certain or full of doubts, God blesses us that we may be a blessing.

God sends us into the world to journey by faith, believing that God's blessings are greater than anything we can imagine.

Whether the path is straight or winding, God blesses us that we may be a blessing.

We find in today's gospel reading you offer healing to those who seek and place their trust in You. From fears that paralyze us;

Heal us, O Lord.

From illness that strangles us;

Heal us, O Lord.

From sorrows that weigh us down;

Heal us, O Lord.

From aimlessness that plagues our visions;

Heal us, O Lord.

Prayer of Confession—by Thom Shuman, Lectionary Liturgies

Autumn Boyer

There is nothing, nothing, which can divide us—in life and death—from God. So let us confess our worst faults and eager failings, so we may be touched by the healing power of God.

We want to touch the hem of your garment, O God. Forgive us for being afraid to touch those who come to us for hope; we want to love the whole world: forgive us for ignoring our neighbor; we long for peace: forgive us for the pain we inflict on our families and friends; we want to share with those we love and like: forgive us for walking past those who need you most. Forgive us, Loving God, that we do not excel in everything you call us to do. Give us grace: to touch those who frighten us; to carry the Bread of Life to the hungry; to offer the blessings of the kingdom to everyone we meet, even as you have graced us in Christ Jesus, our Lord and Savior.

Silent prayers may be offered

Assurance of Pardon

Listen to the Good News! Hope in God, for God's love has no ending; God fills us with grace and hope, this day, and forever.

God hears our voice, and listens to our prayers, redeeming us from all our sins. Thanks be to God. Amen.

† Peace of Christ
